

STINGER SPORTS

December 16, 1982

CONCORDIA HOCKEY TRIO WITH NATIONALS

Three members of the Concordia University Hockey Stingers have been selected to play with Canada's Olympic Team over the Christmas break. The trio, forward Kelly Kavic, defenseman Mike Walker and forward/defenseman Paul Bedard, will be splitting up as the National Team divides to play games in Canada and Czechoslovakia. Kavic and Bedard will play in Canada against a touring club team from the Soviet Union. Four games each are set for Saskatchewan and the Maritimes. Walker will play in a four-game exhibition series in Czechoslovakia.

All three players will miss the Stingers trip to the "I Love New York Tournament" in Lake Placid, while only Walker will be absent when Concordia host the Micron Tournament January 7th and 8th.

Currently Kavic leads the Stingers in scoring with 14 goals and 13 assists in 21 games. Bedard is close behind with 11 goals and 13 assists, while defenseman Walker has scored 5 times to date and has chipped in with 15 assists.

BP/th